INTERVIEW WITH WITNESS [redacted]

SRPD VCI Detective: James Vickers
Interviewed: [redacted]

Legend:
*: Unintelligible

E: ****.

JV: Hi, [redacted] It's Detective Vickers from Santa Rosa PD.

E: Yes. Hi, there, Detective. How are you?

JV: I'm good. How are you? [redacted]

E: I'm doing well.

JV: Do you have just a few moments?

E: Yes, I absolutely do.

JV: Okay. Um, so I was just callin' you. Uh, I called, uh, the other ladies I believe that you were with.

E: Yes.

JV: And I, I was just hopin' – uh, I know you may've already spoke with someone, but I was hopin' you could just run down for me, um, the incident kind of as you remember it, uh, where you were when it started, what kind of alerted you to it, and then just kind of walk me through the rest.

E: Yeah, sure. Of course. Um, and, and I'm sure as, as, if you've spoke to the other girls, it's probably very similar. Um, unfortunately, we don't, we don't have a lot to tell. Uh, we just, we were, um, renting an Airbnb, um, pretty much across the street from where it occurred, and it was early morning. Um, if I'm remembering correctly, 7:30, 8 maybe. Um, around that timeframe, and we just heard, all of us girls pretty much heard this, heard screaming outside. Um, we were not able to obviously make out exactly what was being said. Um, I know some of the girls that were a little bit closer down in the basement with windows open probably heard a lot, heard a bit more than I did, but, um, you could hear the screaming back and forth. It obviously sounded, um, you know, like it may have been physical, um, and so we ran out on the back, back deck and kinda heard a tail end of, you know, what was a, uh, pretty loud screaming match, um, and I would say probably within, oh, it was very quick, probably within 5 minutes, um, we had heard the, the police show up. We heard sirens, um, so I grabbed some shoes, ran outside and, um, I saw the firetrick, firetruck showed up and I, I mean I would say probably with 10 minutes, there were just, from both directions, uh, cop cars just showing up. Um, unfortunately, like I said, I, I didn't hear anything. I didn't hear the words. I, I didn't see anything, um, and then any other information that I have would just be, um, you know, what I had heard from the neighbors who actually, um, per the neighbors. I, I don't even think they lived there. I think they were construction workers who were building a deck or something maybe. Um, they saw it happen or were kind of involved with, um, this man, and my, my understanding is assisting with helping res, restrain him, because I guess they say he was a very big, large, tall man. Um, unable to control him and, you know, I just got more of a story from them, but, you know, that's hearsay so I wasn't, you know, out of my own eyes able to see any of that. You know, just like I said, screaming from the house, we did hear.

JV: Okay. Uh, –

E: Yeah.

JV: – well, thank you very much, [redacted]

E: Yeah, yeah. Sorry I can't help out much more.

JV: No, no. That's fine. Uh, the inf, the situation kind of resolved. Uh, we're just tryin' to get statements and nail everything down –

E: Sure.

JV: – before we submit our reports.

E: Yeah, and I'm so sorry it took so long. I know you called a couple a times, and it's been a little bit of a hassle to try to get back in touch with you.

JV: Oh, no worry. I, I'm glad we were able to talk today.

E: Okay, take care.

JV: Thanks, [redacted]

E: Uh huh. Bye bye.
